

1940's

Mary Agnes Bliss, Nancy Baker, and Sister Mary Benigna R.S.M.

Monsignor Illig (center) used to hand out report cards to students at Saint Brigid School. He would look at each report card and make a comment before giving to the student. Also pictured is Fr. Eickholt and Fr. O'Toole.

Gym classes were taught at the Community Center, with boys and girls taught in separate classes. Students in 2nd-8th grade all participated in weekly classes. Pictured above is Virginia Kranczyk, Jeanine DuLude, Joan Wittbrodt, Virginia Bonvouloir, Sally Bell, Ann Clulo, Margaret Hanson, and Mrs. Frank Campbell.

In 1948, there were 385 children in eight grades at Saint Brigid School. Above are shown three first graders in the process of learning to read. They are David Hintz, Judy Jablonski, and Marianne Bennett.

May Crowning & First Communion