

ALUMNI PROFILE

MARK ROMZICK

Saint Brigid

Catholic School

A community fully alive in Christ

1961-1968

Mark J Romzick was enrolled at Saint Brigid Catholic School between 1961-1968. He went on from St. Brigid to Dow High School and onto the University of Notre Dame and to the Kellogg School of Management, where he received the FC Austin Scholarship.

Mark married his wife, Laura Debicki Romzick, in 1984 and they have a daughter, Bethany. He went on to a career in commercial banking that took him to Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland, Miami, and Atlanta. He has served on boards for Goodwill Industries, The American Red Cross, United Way of Miami-Dade County, The Rotary Club of Vinings, Inc., Alpharetta Rotary Club, Morningside-Lenox Park Association, and the National Funding Association.

Mark said that attending St. Brigid was a wonderful experience that provided him with a great education and a solid foundation in his Catholic faith. He served as an altar server, played on the basketball team, and was Captain of the Safety Patrol. He said he and his group of friends stayed together from 1st through 8th grade and they were as close as siblings.
